

2022-2023 WVC Scholarship Application Preview - English

Please visit wvc.edu/scholarships to submit your application

General Information

- Date of Birth
- An email address that you check often
- Phone Number
- Current Mailing Address

Academic Information

- Do you have or have you ever had a WVC student ID number?
- What will your academic status be during the 2022-2023 academic year?
- Current GPA (use high school GPA if you don't have a college GPA yet)
- What degree are you pursuing?
- Program of Study at WVC
- Will you be enrolled full time (12 or more credit hours) at WVC?
- What high school did you or will you be graduating from?
- Do you intend to transfer to a four-year institution?
- If you plan to transfer to a Four-Year University, what is your intended major?

Financial Information

- Have you filed the FAFSA or WASFA?
- Expected Family Contribution (FAFSA or WASFA)

Qualification Questions

ATTENTION: The WVC Foundation has many scholarships that are available to ALL students! You are eligible for scholarships regardless of how you answer the following questions. These questions help determine if you are eligible for a small number of scholarships with very specific criteria. Your application will not be scored based on your responses to the following questions.

- Are you the first in your immediate family to attend college?
- Are you a part of an Athletic team at WVC?
- Will you be pursuing a career in education or special education?
- Are you bilingual?
- Do you have learning difficulties due to a lack of reading comprehension?

- What is your military experience?
- Are you a member of a group that supports the LGBTQIA+ community?
- Are you or a family member connected to the Hispanic Orchard Employee Education Program (HOEEP)?
- Have you previously taken courses through the Transitional Studies department?
- Have you or your parents been employed by Town Auto Group?
- Marital Status
- Do you have children and/or dependents?

Transcript

Attach an unofficial copy of your most recent transcript. Transcripts DO NOT need to be official, but must include cumulative GPA.

Transcripts may include high school, college, or homeschool coursework or GED scores. Make sure your transcript includes your most recent grades.

Short Answer Questions

Your application will be scored based on your responses to the following questions. You have 100 words to address the topic of each question.

1. Leadership/Group contributions: Describe examples of your leadership experience in which you significantly influenced others, helped resolve disputes, or contributed to group efforts over time. Consider responsibilities to initiatives taken in school, at work, or in other areas of your life.
2. Knowledge in a field/creativity: Describe any of your special interests and how you have developed knowledge in these areas. Give examples of your creativity: the ability to see alternatives; take diverse perspectives; come up with many, varied, or original ideas; or willingness to try new things. Your examples might come from work, school, or other areas of your life.
3. Dealing with adversity: Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to address this challenge. Include whether you turned to anyone in facing that challenge, the role that person played, and what you learned about yourself.
4. Community service: Explain what you have done to make your community a better place to live. Give examples of specific projects in which you have been involved over time. You define your “community” and it could include your city, school, family, religious organization, or any other group that you are connected to.
5. Experience with equity and inclusion: Describe your experiences facing or witnessing discrimination. Tell us how you responded, what you learned from those experiences, and how they have prepared you to make your school community more equitable and inclusive.
6. Goals/task commitment: Articulate the goals you have established for yourself and your efforts to accomplish these. Give at least one specific example that demonstrates your work ethic/diligence.